

DAINTY G. A. R. VETERANS.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—The appeal of George D. A. R. veterans, formerly members of the G. A. R., to the United States Supreme Court, who claimed a pension for treatment of the war wound, was denied today by the court.

THE BLOOD IS THE STREAM OF LIFE

"Fruit-a-lives" Purifies and Enriches the Blood.

Pure blood can flow only in a clean body. Now, a clean body is one in which the waste matter is regularly and naturally eliminated from the system. The blood cannot be pure when the skin action is weak; when the stomach does not digest the food properly; when the bowels do not move regularly; when the kidneys are strained or overworked.

Pure blood is the result of perfect health and harmony of stomach, liver, bowels, kidneys and skin. "Fruit-a-lives," by the wonderful action on all these organs, keeps the whole system clean at Nature intended our bodies to be clean.

"FRUIT-A-LIVES," the marvelous fruit medicine, is now made in the United States. 50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c, or from Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ogdensburg, N. Y.—Advt.

Many Pleasant Surprises Planned for Winners of Panama Pacific Contest

Pretty Girls Who Go on Trip Will Be Showered With Charming Gifts.

All the delightful experiences that await the winners of The Evening World-Panama-Pacific Tour to the Panama-Pacific Exposition have not yet been told. To make sure that each of the pretty girls who take the trip share the time of her life from the day she starts to the day she returns home, all sorts of surprises have been planned for her.

Of course, the Panama-Pacific Exposition, San Diego Exposition and Universal City, Cal., where movies are made, will contribute to make the objective points of the tour a continuous round of pleasure and enjoyment, and of course the luxurious Pullman and hotel accommodations will vie with the scenic panorama of the route to make the cross-country trip one of unexpected comfort and interest.

It would seem hard to pack more pleasure into such a tour, wouldn't it? It would seem unnecessary to add any more to it in any way, wouldn't it? However, busy brains have been scheming other pleasures to add, and one of the plans devised is a veritable "gift shower."

The Universal Film Manufacturing Company

ONLY THESE SIMPLE CONDITIONS TO BE OBSERVED

1—Each entrant must be at least sixteen years old.
2—Her photograph must bear attached a sponsor's blank, properly filled out. (See sample blank printed on the page.)
3—She must be a resident of one of the following three districts: DIST. NO. 1—Greater New York and Long Island (the three greatest girls); DIST. NO. 2—The following ten counties in New York State: Westchester, Rockland, Putnam, Orange, Dutchess, Ulster, Columbia, Greene, Rensselaer and Albany (the two prettiest girls); DIST. NO. 3—The State of New Jersey (the two prettiest girls).
These conditions met, mail your photograph to the FREE TOUR BUREAU, EVENING WORLD, 126 WEST 42D ST., NEW YORK CITY. If you desire your photograph returned after the contest, inclose return postage.

has arranged with a score of big manufacturers of articles dear to a girl's heart to provide presents of their wares to each fair member of the tour party.

These gifts, every one useful and an addition to the comfort and happiness of the trip, will be distributed on the train en route for the coast. A list of them is being compiled and will be printed as soon as it is complete.

In case you have not before read of this Free Tour offer we will briefly explain it.

The Evening World, in conjunction with the Universal Film Manufacturing Company, will send the seven prettiest girls in this vicinity on a free tour to the Panama-Pacific Exposition and the other interesting places already mentioned. The accompanying small box explains the simple conditions to be observed.

Photographs submitted will be turned over to a jury of five well known artists, who will make their selection of the seven girls in their opinion the prettiest.

To these seven girls the free tour will be awarded, a trip which, if undertaken at her own expense, would cost each girl fully $500.

Throughout the United States similar contests now are being conducted. Winners of this contest will meet the winners of all the other contests at Chicago, expenses paid.

From Chicago, the first week in June, a special train will take the whole party, chartered by Mrs. Champ Clark, to the Exposition and return. To each girl the whole trip is absolutely free.

At Universal City the girl adjudged the prettiest in the whole party will be offered a career as a "movie star" by the Universal Film Manufacturing Company, and will be presented with a silver loving cup.

Additional details of contest and tour are being published daily in The Evening World. Quite a number of pretty girls already have entered the contest, which closes May 15.

SAYS MONATON CO. HEAD GOT SAVINGS, THEN PUT HER OUT

Miss Dawson Tells on Stand of Her Dealings With Alleged Realty Swindler.

Miss Elizabeth Dawson, mother of a woman's college in Appleton, Wis., told a jury in United States Judge Cushman's court today how she made two vain attempts to recover from Morris M. Looker, President of the Monaton Realty Investing Corporation, her lifetime savings invested in so-called profit sharing certificates of the company, and then was pointedly shown out of the concern's Forty-second Street office, with the word that Looker would not see her if she called again.

Miss Dawson was the first witness called today by Assistant United States Attorney Hartridge at the resumption of Looker's trial on a charge of using the mails to defraud. The Government is trying to prove Looker and another promoter, since dead, took $1,000,000 in dishonest profits from small investors in their alleged fraudulent real estate schemes.

"I came all the way from Appleton to assure myself my investment was safe," said Miss Dawson. "Mr. Looker told me his company had control of about thirty-five apartment house properties in New York and Brooklyn and I asked for a list of them, intending to go and look them over."

The witness was not allowed to tell what she did with the list which she said contained only four or five addresses.
She said, however, she produced a letter that she had received from Looker and that Looker told her the apartment houses were really worth the money and that she should keep the money and let him handle the business.

When I asked for a statement of what I had paid on the money, Looker told me to keep it and let him handle the business. I kept the money and let him handle the business. I kept the money and let him handle the business.

Miss Dawson said she retained two days later and asked Looker for a cash settlement, telling him she wanted to take her money and write the money without a time Looker replied, she said, that he would take the money over to the company's legal department and it would be turned in to her as soon as it was cashed again.

"I asked him where the company was," she said, "and he told me it was in New York City. I went there and found it was a small office."

Before the case went on, today, Attorney Hartridge, for the defense, asked Judge Cushman to wait the jurors not to read newspaper articles concerning the trial. It developed, when the jury was polled at Hartridge's request, that four of the jury had read an article in a morning newspaper forecasting the testimony of a witness who has not yet taken the stand. All said they would not be influenced by it.

Italian Chief of Robbery Band Gets 25-Year Sentence.

Luca Gallo, twenty-three, of No. 248 Pleasant Avenue, chief of a gang of robbers, who made a practice during the past year of holding up colporteurs and installment houses on the upper east side, was today sentenced to five years in the State Prison at Sing Sing for twenty-five years by Judge Hunsbaker. A jury convicted Gallo of robbery in the first degree as a second offender.
